9. The file relating to the clothing of the menials is not available.

As it appears that peons in other offices are not liable to come in contact with very respectable General Public to the same extent as the peons of the Secretariat the grant of clothing to them seems unnecessary.

7.1.11

10. The general rule is that there are time table punkah attendance as gazetted officers in offices & come in close & frequent contact with respectable public & get white clothing. The Census Office cannot be considered as an office coming in contact with respectable public and the fact that the supernumeraries who may have been transferred before getting them in their old office does not alter the situation. Merely by the fact they became supernumeraries ought to have made them ineligible for the concessions given to the regular staff. No case seems to have been made out & the recommendation cannot be supported.

11. ~~Uniform~~ Clothing may be given to the peons sent from the Circle as supernumeraries as they would have been entitled to if they had not been so sent out. If clothing is denied it will give rise to discontent.

12. In such cases employed in the Census Supdt's office clothing seems to be unnecessary.
